

UK Evacuees Influx Procedure

This multi-agency procedure has been agreed by Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland Local Resilience Forum (LRF) in support of an influx of evacuees being brought into the area. The plan arises from a risk identified in the Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland Local Resilience Forum Community Risk Register, and mutual aid agreements are in place for all local authorities to support a large influx of people. This plan is currently under review

This plan is currently under review